Brief Biological sketches

Part three

Translated by Lourdes del Pino

DIAZ ALVAREZ (D. MIGUEL)

Among the most popular and highly reputable Asturians in Cuba, this enthusiastic Commander of the 4th Batallón de Cazadores of La Habana, D. Miguel Díaz Alvarez deserves special mention.

He was born in Cervera on September 29th, 1854, and came to this country while very young. From a very young age he demonstrated a great capacity for work and his high morals and initiative have earned him a very respectable fortune. He enjoys an excellent reputation as a fervent patriot and distinguished citizen.

He joined the Institute de Volunteers in 1874 and has steadily risen through the ranks, having served in all capacities and contributed with generous donations when needed.

As reward for his services he has received a cross of Military Merit, Amadeo and Constanca medals with two ribbons, a Meritorious Award and a vote of appreciation from the Senate.

As a civilian he has occupied a variety of positions, and is now Speaker of the Board of Directors of the Unión Constitucional Party and honorary President of various committees of the same party. In addition, he is Executive Vice-President of the Atarés neighborhood, President of the Center for Owners of Carriages, Buggies and Moving Trucks, and 5th Lieutenant Mayor of the City Council of La Habana.

He is a very active and practical man, and is well liked for his honesty, goodness and steadfast ideas. He is a key element in the prosperity of the country he loves.

FAES Y MARTINEZ (D. PERFECTO)

He was born in 1848 in Pola de Siero and at 20 years of age joined the 3rd Battalion of La Habana. He has served enthusiastically and is now Lieutenant Colonel 2nd Chief of the 4th Cazadores.

His distinguished personal services have been parallel to his cash donations, always generous and spontaneous. He is also well respected as patriot and citizen.

Him impeccable public and private conduct have earned him two crosses of Military Merit, Amadeo and Constancia medals with two ribbons, two Meritorious Awards from the Co-Legislative Bodies and more that one vote of appreciation from the Senate.

He has belonged to and been the Speaker of various corporations, among them the Board of Directors of the Casino Español, Beneficencia Asturiana, Unión Constitucional Party and Board of Tax Assessments.

FERNANDEZ ALONSO (D. JOSE)

This modest, hard-working Speaker of the Beneficencia Asturiana was born in the beautiful valley of Naveces, situated on the coast, one league from the town of Avilés.

He arrived in Havana early in 1859 and has worked as a representative of very important national businesses, including that of D. Gerónimo Castañón, an Asturian established in Paris since 1879.

For the last twelve to fourteen years he has belonged to the Institute of Volunteers, but his most important contribution is to the Hispanic-American coalescence. He has facilitated communication and commercial ties between Cuba and the other Republics of Spanish origin by always making sure that any news about novel products in one country immediately reaches the others.

His enthusiasm and curiosity are such that when the splendid festivities commemorating the Centennial of Columbus were verified, he immediately collected all publications that described it and sent them as a collection to all of the Hispanic-American Republics.

He saved some of these collections and placed them in an ornate box, which he will leave as a legacy to his descendants. They are entrusted to pass along the legacy so that in the next Centennial people will know how the immortal discoverer of the Virgin of the World was honored by this generation.

This is the quality that best describes this patriot and fervent admirer of the achievements of his nation, and enthusiastic friend of this noble American country.

FERNANDEZ ARENA (D. Manuel)

He is Lieutenant Colonel 1st Chief of the 1st Battalion of Volunteers of Sagua la Grande.

He was born in San Esteban de Molleda, Avilés, on November 25th, 1855.

He came to this Island in February 1871 and joined the Volunteers on March 15th 1872, in the infantry of the town of Cifuentes.

From the moment he joined the Institute until the end of the war, he performed all services assigned to him, such as guards, patrols, ambush and other operations. He participated in various attacks, including that of the "No Name" sugar mill and the one in San Juan de Amaro in 1875, whose insurgency was commanded by the mulatto Rivas. On several occasions he was posted at the Manzanares sugar mill, owned by the Count of Casa Moré.

He has been awarded the medal of Constancia with one ribbon, was given a Meritorious Award in July of 1876, as a member of the Defenders of Cuba, was given a vote of appreciation from the Senate.

He suffered the lottery of 5 and 10% on the mobilization ordered by His Excellency Governor General D. Joaquín Jovellar. He contributed to all donations, especially while he was a Captain of the Third Company, in the purchase of the building that now houses the Battalion. He also purchased uniforms and belts for many in his company.

This Battalion has an excellent musical band, and very well appointed quarters according to all military authorities that have visited. In the January 1893 revision this battalion with capacity for 1038 men boasted 500 to 600 well-uniformed and armed men that could be seen in correct formation the first Sunday of each month.

As a civilian he holds the following positions: Provincial Congressman for his district, President of the Casino Español, Vice-President of the Board of Patrons of the San José Hospital as well as Vice President of Alumbrado Eléctrico de Sagua. He was President of the local committee of the Unión Constitucional for the past 4 years and until this past December, he was President of the society of Licenciados del Ejército, one of the best organized in the Island.

He was elected President of the Casino Español on three different occasions, which means this is his four consecutive year in that capacity.

In 1883 he was Regent in the Amaro (now Cifuentes) City Council but resigned his post when he moved to Sagua.

He is a landowner, businessman and a humble man of great merit and virtues.

FERNANDEZ JOGLAR (D. MANUEL)

This meritorious Lieutenant Colonel Second in Command of the Chapelgorris Regiment of Guamutas is one of the few veterans of the original Institute of Volunteers.

Born in Infiesto in 1823, he traveled to Cuba when he was very young. By 1850 he volunteered to defend our mother country against the lobbying efforts of Narciso Lopez in Cardenas. This ringleader disembarked in Las Pozas in 1852, at the time when the very first Squadron of Chapelgorris was formed under the command of the gallant D. José M. Fortún. Mr. Fernández Joglar was one of the first to respond to the call of the motherland. He has continued to serve with constant loyalty in all respects. As a civilian, he has enthusiastically contributed with all donations called for by his country.

Mr. Fernández Joglar's military record is one of the most brilliant ever among the veterans to head the Institute.

He has served for forty-one years, three months and twenty days of immaculate service. He served in campaigns for ten years and a few months, assisting in more than one hundred armed confrontations. He always distinguished himself and in many occasions earned praise for his serenity and valor in combat, in Sinú, Galdos and in Manuel Díaz's horse ranch in 1869.

Not only has he served brilliantly and at times heroically, but he has also contributed a large amount of his fortune to armament and maintenance of his squadron.

He was named honorary Colonel of the Militias by his Excellency the Captain General in 1875, after his heroic capture of the insurgents in the Pedroso sugar mill, verified on February 13th of that year. He received two crosses of Military Merit, two I. L. C. commendations, the medals of Amadeo y Constancia with seven ribbons; two Meritorious Awards, a vote of gratitude from the Senate and countless other authorities and superiors.

This meritorious man has not taken a single day of leave and his reputation as a military man is deservedly excellent. As a civilian he has demonstrated great aptitude as an enthusiastic Mayor.

Mr. Fernández Joglar is an honor to Spain and Asturias, the land of his birth.

FERNANDEZ PANTIGA (D. TELESFORO)

This gallant commander of the Chapelgorrís de Macagua Squadron is one of our most distinguished veterans and one who has performed many services in war.

Born in 1844 in Rubiera, council of Bimenes, he arrived in Cuba in 1859. He joined the Chapelgorrís of Guamutas Squadron in 1868 (now a Regiment), lead by the gallant Commander D. Claudio Herrero, who is now a Colonel.

He served in this Squadron from '68 to '75 as a lieutenant and today he leads it. His service has been exemplary, even heroic at times.

Along with his many brilliant services in war, he has made many monetary contributions to feed his troops as well as to purchase materials and to provide fortification. Since 1885, he has provided his squadron with a house without asking for retribution.

For all his contributions he has been awarded the medal of Constancia with three ribbons.

He has been regent of the City Council of Macagua, for the past four years, two of those as Receiver.

His public service has been brilliant and enjoys a well-deserved excellent reputation.

FERNANDEZ PEREZ (D. FRANCISCO)

This Commander of the 1st Battalion of Ligeros of La Habana, was born in Santiago in 1854. By 1874 he was already a Volunteer of the Institute.

Since then he has performed all services required of him with enthusiasm and intelligence, and has been generous in his donations.

He has received a medal of Military Merit, a medal of Constancia with two ribbons, a Meritorious Award, a vote of gratitude from the Senate and another from the Corp for good behavior as a cashier.

FERNANDEZ SANTA EULALIA (D. FRANCISCO)

This hard-working and intelligent secretary of the Centro Asturiano of La Habana was born in Avilés on May 8th, 1853 and arrived in Cuba when he was 17 years old.

He is a dedicated and honorable businessman with a strong affection for literature that lead him to create the business journal "El Dependiente" in 1870. Through this journal he promoted the need for the association of businesses that later produced excellent results.

He returned to his native town from 1885 to 1887 and frequently contributed articles to "La Luz de Avilés".

At his return to Cuba he headed "El Heraldo de Asturias", a weekly regional that has waged many battles for the Centro Asturiano. Mr. Santa Eulalia, with his affable personality, his knowledge and perseverance, has been a valuable asset for the Centro Asturiano.

FERNANDEZ VILLAMIL (D. JUAN)

Born in San Esteban de Sogrendio in 1842, at 30 years old, he was ready an Artillery volunteer. He rose through the ranks and is now a Lieutenant Colonel in the first degree of the Mounted Artillery Brigade of La Habana.

He is an illustrious and virtuous working man who has intelligently managed the sumptuous Hotel de Inglaterra, the most elegant and well situated of Havana hotels, and one of the best in Latin America. It possesses the most modern amenities in a refined and elegant setting.

He is a straightforward man, gregarious, extremely generous and very enthusiastic. His love for this country has earned him the affection of his people.

As a civilian he has held many honorable positions. He has been awarded two Military Merits and M.I.L. and I.L.C. crosses, Amadeo and Constancia medals with two ribbons, two Meritorious Awards and a vote of gratitude from the Senate.

GARCIA BARBON (D. FRANCISCO)

This young man is the Fiscal Commander of the Iberian Volunteer Hunters Regiment stationed in Guanajay. His patriotism and virtues make him an asset to Asturias and his country.

He was born in Avilés in 1855 and at 14 he was already in Cuba serving his country in the Cazadores of Guanajay Battalion. He ascended through the ranks first as a corporal, then Sergeant in the second class between February 23rd 1870 and November 1876, and now he is the Battalion's Commander.

He has served his Regiment well and has made many monetary donations. He has been awarded the Amadeo and Constancia medals with two ribbons, the Military Merit cross 1st class, a Meritorious Award and a vote of gratitude from the Senate.

His wonderful personality and modesty have earned him many loyal friends and admirers.

GARCIA CORUJEDO (D. LUIS)

He was born in Riveras, very close to Pravia, the Noega of the Romans. It was the court of king D. Silo and his wife D. Aldosinda, commonly known as Henda. She was the daughter of Alfonso I the Catholic and granddaughter of D. Pelayo.

In spite of coming from a wealthy family, Mr. García Corujedo followed the path of the immense amount of young Asturians who went to Cuba and with initiative and hard work, made their own fortunes.

When he got to Havana, he worked at the famous "El Gallo" store in the historic street of Muralla. He first worked as a salesperson, then supervisor, associate and eventually became its owner.

He is an astute businessman and co-owns the Nueva Paz sugar mill, which can produce 50,000 bags of sugar each year. He is a great patriot as well. When the conflict with Germany began as a result of incident of the Carolina's, he organized a drive at the Casino Español of Havana that raised 5000 gold pesos. He then went to Pravia and donated land where a hospital was built.

Mr. García Corujedo is Commander of the 7th battalion of Volunteers of Havana, Mayor of this City Council, speaker of the Board of Taxation. He is also speaker of the Board of Ports and of the Executive Board of the Unión Constitucional Party. He is speaker and treasurer of the Casino Español, speaker and Vice President of the Beneficencia Asturiana, and speaker of the Chamber of Commerce. He is a consultant to the Banco Español and of most businesses, railroads and refineries.

We will not speak at length of his tenure as Mayor, as he received the post in a very sorry state and has tried to diffuse the many conflicts that have surfaced.

GARCIA CUE (D. CARLOS)

We have not forgotten the sad but very eloquent funeral of December 14th, 1892 for the unforgettable Lieutenant Colonel in the 2nd degree of the 1st Battalion of Volunteers of Havana who had perished the day before.

It is only fitting that we honor the virtues of this patriot who was born in Llanes on October 18th, 1839.

He came to this Island while very young and with his hard work and moral rectitude was able to amass a respectable fortune. His affable character earned him many friends.

In 1855 he joined the Volunteers and contributed not only with his service, but also with generous donations even to causes that were foreign to him such as the war in Africa, the flood victims of Murcia, and the victims of the storm of Vuelta Abajo among others. He continued his services for 37 years until his passing. He had earned Military Merit and I.L.C. crosses, medals of Amadeo and Constanca with three ribbons, three Meritorious Awards and a vote of gratitude from the Senate.

As a civilian he served in many distinguished posts such as founding member and Speaker of the Board of the Lonja de Víveres

He has left a brilliant legacy and will not be forgotten.

As his successor, we now have his nephew, D. Ricardo García Alvarez, an enthusiastic Captain of the Institute, also from Llanes. He distinguished himself in Mexico as a virtuous man in his private life and as an enthusiastic promoter of strong ties between Mexicans and Spaniards. He now distinguishes himself in Cuba with his cultured, enthusiastic and generous ways.

He has been awarded a Military Merit cross and has received a vote of gratitude from the Senate.

As he continues to follow his uncle's example, he will become one of this society's most valued personalities.

GARCIA CUERVO (D. GUMERSINDO)

Colonel of the Battalion of volunteers of Santiago de las Vegas, he is an especially qualified leader and an accomplished military man.

A modest man by nature who may not even realize that he is as gifted, but this author, without presuming to be a master in the art of war, can say without a shadow of a doubt that he is deserving of this praise. He is an example of good conduct and merit. This was expressed to him the day this battalion was sworn in, in the presence of the highest representatives of the Military, Volunteers and townspeople. We were all able to admire the exemplary job of reorganization accomplished by its illustrious leader.

His history as a patriot, volunteer and active citizen is very similar to that of thousands of Spaniards that have made their country proud, defending it with the weapons of war and supporting it with their hard work and virtues in peaceful times.

He was born in Pravia in 1843 and in 1868 was already in the Island performing as a volunteer in what is today the 1st Company of the Battalion he commands.

He has offered all sorts of personal services, and contributed monetarily in the amount of $12,840.40 gold. He is a knight of the Order of Military Merit, has been awarded with the medals of Amadeo and Constanza with two ribbons, and has received a vote of gratitude from the Senate.

He is President of the Casino Español of Santiago de las Vegas, and a philanthropist by nature. He is a brilliant businessman who is in great part responsible for the huge success of the tobacco industry in that jurisdiction.

His name, Don Gumersindo is rightfully uttered with great respect.
