EDITOR'S LETTER

This is the last issue of REVISTA to be published by the Cuban Genealogical Society.

It is the conclusion of 18 years of effort to publish the genealogical information given to us by Pedro de Santa Cruz, son of Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz, Conde de Jaruco.

The copies of these papers that were entrusted to the Society will be taken to the Cuban Collection of the Richter Library at the University of Miami in the near future, for safe keeping and the use of student of Cuban genealogy.

We hope the work that has been done so far is beneficial to those who chose to use it.

Again I would like to express my appreciation for all those who over the time contributed to this publication when were able and made this task easier.

Parish Registers of La Habana, Cuba

Various Parishes

Baptism, Marriage and Death

The transcriptions from the several parishes in La Habana are of selected families that were being studied at the time by Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz and his associates. The extractions cover the years 1700 to 1899.

The information contained in the following listing has the same format as previously used. To recap: The surname and given name are found first, followed by the sex of the individual, the date of the marriage, a letter indicating whether the individual listed is the one being married (M), or is associated genealogically (G), this G follows the names of parents or other spouses and witnesses, if any. In the death the letter (D) is used to indicate the person that is deceased. The numbers at the very end refer to the page and entry number of the original transcription. These are helpful in looking at the individuals identified in a given entry and may also be used for further reference in corresponding with CGS to get a printout of the entry as it appears in the original transcription.

Brief historic narration about
Doña Beatriz Justiz y Zayas-Bazan, Marchioness of Justiz de Santa Ana

By Sonia María García
Translated by Mayra Sanchez-Johnson

Illustrious families were established in the legendary city of enchanting natural beauty of Matanzas.

Among them we remember, not only for its lineage, but also for its philanthropic nature, the Justiz family, originally from San Sebastián, Guipúzcoa, Spain. They arrived in Cuba at the end of the XVII century and they established themselves in La Habana and Santiago de Cuba.

Once in Cuba the family consolidated great economic wealth, which gave them the opportunity of contributing to the social benefit of the cities and occupy a privileged place in the society of the times. They obtained the titles of the Marquissette of Justiz of Santa Ana in 1757 and the Marquissette of Prado-Amerno in 1787, both still active.<sup>1</sup>

One of the member of this family was Doña Beatriz Justiz y Sayas-

Basan, Marchioness of Justiz de Santa Ana, who resided on the capital of the province of Matanzas. She distinguished herself for her culture and great generosity that contributed to the social economical growth of the country of Cuba.

Her ancestry:

The Justiz family occupied a respectable place in the history of the city of Matanzas as well as the country of Cuba. One of its members was Don Manuel José de Justiz y Uspiere, Coronel of the Royal Army, Sargent Mayor and Alcalde of the Fort of El Morro in the Plaza of Habana, Governor and Capital General of San Agustín de la Florida. He married Doña Beatriz de Zayas-Casan y Frómeta. They were the parents of Jerónima, Beatriz, María Leonor, Juan José and Vicente Justiz y Zayas-Bazan.

Beatriz Agustina Justiz y Zayas-Bazan was baptized in the Cathedral of La Habana on February 24, 1733. She married her cousin Don Manuel José Aparicio del Manzano y Justiz, second Marquis of Justiz de Santa Ana, on September 24, 1751, becoming the Marchioness of Justiz de Santa Ana.

Among the properties that possessed the Marquis was the Hacienda Los Molinos in Matanzas, granted to the family in 1715 for the purpose of building mills for tobacco. The first mill was installed in 1717, which later gave way to the Rappee<sup>2</sup> industry. In the XVIII this industry brought a certain economic benefit to the city of Matanzas for the profit it was able to produce.

Beatriz distinguished herself for her generous and devoted nature and in the year of her marriage she donated a considerable amount of money for the construction of the present Cathedral of Matanzas.

She was loyal to Cuba and loved her native city of Habana. She lived with her family in La Habana and spent some times of leisure in the Hacienda Los Molinos, where she had a very relaxed relationship with the servants and slaves that served the Hacienda, giving them many privileges. One of them, the famous slave poet, Juan Francisco Manzano, she called "her son in her old age". Thanks to this poet and writer we know a lot about the family life of the Justiz<sup>3</sup>.

On June 5, 1803, at the Hacienda Los Molinos, the Marhioness died at the age of 70. She was buried in the habit of San Francisco, according to the costumes of the times and was buried in the Cathedral of Matanzas, on the left size of the Main Altar. A place that was only accessible to those with economic means.

There she lied until 1925 when, when doing some repairs in the church, the sepulcher was found after 122 years. The newspaper El Imparcial, wrote about the occassion: after 122 year of sleeping under the cold tiles of the Cathedral, has resurrected to full civilization the memory of the Marchioness Doña Beatriz Justiz y Zayas<sup>4</sup>

With the approval of the Parish Priest Dr. Genaro Suárez, of the Cathedral, and the Health Department, the body was exhumed. Present to the exhumation was the Bishop of Matanzas, Mons. Severino Sainz Bencomo; The doctors, Adolfo Lecuona and Juan Tamargo, and the inspector of Health and architect Carlos Carballo.

According to the present sacristan of the Cathedral, there was a letter of authorization given to the Cathedral allowing them to re-bury the body of the illustrious lady back where she had laid all those years.
